I Remain

Verb T

How crass you stand before me with
No blood to fuel your fame
How dare you wield such flippancy
Without requisite shame?
Your very existence becomes
My scared mission's bane
You bow to kiss my hand
And I ignore ignited flame
I moved to meet you
Untouched I do remain
To some it seems foreign my eye
Would steely forge ahead
This land entrusted to me
Knows not of hallowed secrets
I'll keep it to myself
My irade anekatips eye swim in my head
Your charm can not distract me
From the path I'm born to tread

How I'm thrilled to know you
Unaffected I remained
How I've learned to like you
Undeterred I do remain
Less daunting as team
You unlikely king by my side
And me so much better for trusting you
My hand over your heart while
You keep hindrances at bay
Color me surprised by
How our union saves the day
How I've grown to need you
As my soldier need fades
How I love to love you
And how'd I remain
I remain
I remain
