Karma's a Bitch by Tommy Vixon

Verse:

There's a bunch of bullies, tryin to rule this world
There's a bunch of bullies, pushin around a little girl and I ain't got the time, for all of these games Karma's gonna get you back, just the same

Chorus:

Remember that...

Karma's a bitch, and we all know,
She likes to feast on pranks and boys who cry wolf
Karma's a bitch and she laughs devilishly
she's gonna get ya, just wait and see.

Verse:

There's a bunch of bullies, that really don't care
They like to watch you cry, while everyone stares
Now your all alone, cryin yourself to sleep
Ya feel like your world's falling apart endlessly

Chorus:

Remember That

Karma's a bitch, and we all know
She's gonna get ya, before you go.
Karma's a bitch, and she really cares
She's gonna make sure, ya pay your share

Verse:

There's a bunch of bullies, dancing around your grave
Better watch what you do, better watch what you say
Karma's gonna get ya back, any day
There's too many bullies and they're bound to pay

Chorus:

Remember that...

Karma's a bitch, and we all know,
She likes to feast on pranks and boys who cry wolf
Karma's a bitch and she laughs devilishly

she's gonna get ya, just wait and see.
