Scattered

Akiko Kiyama

Where has it gone?
Gonna fool myself, gonna fool myself
You know, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong
You know, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong, my ribs are strong
Hey, we're all
Scattered on the whole dead earth
Blessed are the ones
Who blessed our [Incomprehensible]
Here we are
Scattered within our wounded selves
Bless this life of ours
Take us to ourselves

I would like to see you come
Wait here for the coming of the sun
Bless this life of ours
Take us to ourselves
Where has it gone?
Gonna fool myself, gonna fool myself
You know, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong, my ribs are strong
You know, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong, my ribs are strong
You know, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong
No, you cannot, you cannot, you cannot break my ribs
My ribs are strong, my ribs are strong, so take me to myself
