All of Me

Produkt

This game it just don't love you
Time is burning everyday
This game it just don't love you
Is it all a big mistake
"I'm just giving all of me"

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me

verse 1

Iâ€™m just boy from the bronx that been known to get em off paranoid that them boys at the door cuz Iâ€™m ready for war

Mind on my money an I'm running for the goal line Way the boy running we done stumbled on a gold mind roll the dice Iâ€™m a double down want to win got to play aint no fucking round Know the price when it coming down i think about it all, all the shit that I endured niggas i fucked up bricks that i broke down

plugs that i stuck up how shit came back round

set up on a re up almost got my brother murdered shit a nigga go through trying to get a little further

Momma tryed to warns us
But her boys wouldn't fall back

Fell in love with a game that ain't never gunna love back

This game it just don't love you
Time is burning everyday
This game it just don't love you
Is it all a big mistake
"I'm just giving all of me"

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me

The bigger i get the more bitter they look no love in this game of money bitches an crooks traped in this body

cause these thoughts donâ€™t see a limit mapping this safari im a martyr or a menace

or just lions in a jungle full automatic weapons

look my daughter in her eyes see a mind full of questions watch my son smile i just pray for they protection daddy was a dope boy trying to make it all better full time gig couldnâ€™t cut it in the fall weather quick to point a finger at the dealer Trying to get it never to consider that santa got to deliever yea i will admit i got greedy on the get it should i settle for the desert when I'm sitting Iâ€™m river

Drug Dealer resume billionaire etiqute no love when u elavate these fuck niggas delicate god i create ribbon Iâ€™m a tie hard to hear the hate when u sitting in the sky

Iâ€™m flying on the love nigga world full of turmoil I'll never will i turn on you

Iâ€™m flying on the love wit cha times burning baby tell me what are you learning game aint the same and we knew it from the start fuck fame or a name nigga do it from the heart

This game it just don't love you
Time is burning everyday
This game it just don't love you
Is it all a big mistake
"I'm just giving all of me"

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me

I'm just giving all of me
