London

AJ McLean

When I wake up in the sunlight
And look into your eyes
And I hold you for a little while
Then I see behind your smile
I remember how beautiful
I used to think you are
Now the only love that meant something is goneI should have let you go
When I saw that it was over in your eyes
What do I have to do
To get rid of you
I'll be better on my own
Now I miss the sun
But as long as I'm with you
It's just another rainy day in LondonI still hold on to the memory
Of how we were meant to be
And I wonder did you ever care
You were never there for me
I thought I was stronger
But then why am I here
When there's nothing left to say
When the only one that meant something is goneI should have let you go
When I saw that
It was over in you eyes
What do I have to do
To get rid of you
I'll be better on my own
Now I missed the sun
But as long as I'm with you
It's just a another rainy day in LondonJust another rainy day in LondonI remember how beautiful
I used to think you areI should have let you go
When I saw that
It was over in your eyes(it was over in your eyes)
What do I have to you
To get rid of you(rid of you)
I'll be better on my own(I'll be better on my own)
Now I missed the sun
But as long as I'm with you
It's just another rainy day in London

Just another rainy day in London

Songwriters
Lundin, Kristian Carl / Falk, Carl Anthony / McLean, A.J.Published by Lyrics Â© Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd., Universal Music Publishing Group, BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/