Crown Of Thorns

Sinner

Does it really matter when it feels so good?
I don't really wanna walk away
But I don't walk through the fire again
And if it hurts, I call it a dayI'm gonna give all if you catch my fall
Time and space and nothing at allI throw away my crown of thorns
And if you call my name I'll be thereIf I hear your voice, I couldn't regret
There's something different about you
Now and forever, you always will be there
I can't let you go foreverI'm gonna give all if you catch my fall
Time and space and nothing at allI throw away my crown of thorns
And if you call my name I'll be thereStill we run, my pride is gone
I'm standing alone and I bleedI throw away my crown of thorns
And if you call my name I'll be thereI throw away my crown of thorns
And if you call my name I'll be there
