

Succexy

Metric

Lonesome for no one when
The room was empty and
War as we knew it was obsolete
Nothing could beat complete denial
All we do is talk, sit, switch screens
As the homeland plans enemies
All we do is talk, static split screens
As the homeland plans enemies
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Let?s drink to the military
The glass is empty
Faces to fill and cars to feed
Nothing could beat complete denial
All we do is talk, sit, switch screens
As the homeland plans enemies
All we do is talk, static split screens
As the homeland plans enemies
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Invasion?s so succexxy, so succexxy
Passive attraction, programmed reaction
Passive attraction, programmed reaction
Action distraction, more information
Flesh saturation, lips on a napkin
Ass, ass, ass
Where does the time go?
We?re waking up so slowly
Days are horizontal lately
Out of body, watched from above
Out of body, watched from above
Passive attraction, programmed reaction
More information, cash masturbation
Follow the pattern, the hemlines, the headlines
Action distraction, faster than fashion
Faster than fashion, faster than fashion
Lonesome for no one when
The room was empty and

War as we knew it was obsolete
Nothing could beat denial
