Favorite Fix

Artist Vs Poet

I'm losing my edge my reflection turning white
Like a ghost that's in the mirror it keeps haunting me tonight
And as I lose my self control
I'm caught up in disaster
Into the unknown
I move a little faster

You know that in the end (you're my favorite)
I'll relapse again (you're my favorite)
I'm down to my old tricks
You're my favorite fix

When I come down I cant replace this feeling
I'm falling to my knees and
I'm sweatin' cause I'm feelin' I need it
As I lost my self control
It's self defeating
Its left me all alone
And now I know the reason

You know that in the end (you're my favorite)
I'll relapse again (you're my favorite)
I'm down to my old tricks
You're my favorite fix

I've come to grips that I am falling in so deep
There's no residence to what pulls me out of reach
I am a victim a product of an addiction
Locked in the system and there's no escape

You know that in the end (you're my favorite)
I'll relapse again (you're my favorite)
Well I'm down to my old tricks
You're my favorite fix

You know that in the end (you're my favorite)
I'll relapse again (you're my favorite)
I'm down to my old tricks
Well I'm down to my old tricks
You're my favorite fix
