

Sally Sue Brown

Bob Dylan

Look who's back in town
Ain't nobody but Sally Sue Brown
All you boys better run for cover
If you don't wanna be a broken hearted lover See her in that very tight skirt
Got what it takes just to make you hurt
Don't you see by those big bright eyes
Prefer to treat her nasty and low down lies Make no difference where she's been
I'm going south and doing them things again
Bake in a hot tub, down the line
I'd rather see you ruin this heart of mine I'll go see them come down my way
Like a fool you're gonna hear me say
"Lay at your bed Sally Sue Brown
Please let me love you, baby
Don't put me down" Makes no difference where she's been
I'm going south and doing them things again
Bake in a hot tub, down the line
I'd rather see you ruin this a heart of mine As she come on down my way
Like a fool you're gonna hear me say
"Lay at your bed Sally Sue Brown
Please let me love you, baby
Don't put me down"
