

Poison

Vaults

Cold as the wind that blows
High as the resting sign
We both know you're sweet and blind
Palm struck on the floor Won't you let me poison your heart?
Poison
Won't you let me poison your heart?
Poison Take it strength by strength
I want you to show me weak
Hold your pretty head high
You'll hear me whispering Won't you let me poison your heart?
Poison
Won't you let me poison your heart?
Poison Under your skin, let me fall in Under your skin, let me fall in Oh, won't you let me poison
Poison, won't you let me in
Poison
Under your skin, let me fall in
Won't you let me poison your heart?
