

Stewart's Coat

Michelle Branch

Hold me love,
I can't sleep again,
will I have to kiss your nose, I wanna lay here next to him, love,
I remember walking in the rain, rain was falling on my hands, I don't wanna live through that again, no.

I know it takes love,
love is a healing thing, when you give everything, you're loving the world, the world gives you love to hold onto, remembering,
we seldom remember love.
