

Her Story

The Flying Lizards

Knights in shiny armour
Always takes the key
History, history, hypocrisy
But you can still make money
By singing sweet songs of love(chorus):

I own you
You don't own me
You are my territory
This is a love song
This is a love song
I blame our books
I blame the TV
I blame top twenty for my jealousy
But you can still make money
By singing sweet songs of love
