To the Lightning

Wussy

Enemies at 8 in the morning hangs on our hearts.
Dynamite behind our allies, this is where the ruin starts.
To the lightning, to the lightning we pray!

Thunder storm in this summer late afternoon
Cats and dogs against the window, disappearing way too soon
To the lightning, to the lightning we pray!
To the lightning, to the lightning we pray!

Enemies at 8 in the morning hangs on our hearts.
Dynamite behind our allies, this is where the ruin starts.
To the lightning, to the lightning we pray!
To the lightning, to the lightning we pray!

Why you do time and ...
Who rises high and shine, and let me go?
Why you do time and ...
Who rises high and shine, and let me go?
