

Pretty Pretty

Pop Will Eat Itself

A endly wave each morning, starting the day
Neighbor, next door is only just a footstep away
Neighbor, you're pretty lucky to be alive
Hey pretty, pretty, you're barely alive, man, look at meCandy colored clown they call the sandman
Hey pretty, pretty, I'll send you straight to hell
I'll send you love letters like a bullet, like a bullet
I'll send you straight to hell, straight to hellI'll bring you lipstick kisses, forever in dreams, lover
I'll send you love letters straight from my heart, fucker
You're pretty lucky to be alive
Hey pretty, pretty, you're barely alive, man, look at meCandy colored clown they call the sandman
Hey pretty, pretty, I'll send you straight to hell
I'll send you love letters like a bullet from a gun
