

Sunday Afternoon

Hooverphonic

This sunny second in the late afternoon
December has a nice closely gloom
The clock's ticking while the wind keeps blowing
It's four to five
The warm fills the room While listening to some more 45's
On Sunday afternoon
And while time is quickly slowing down
For a lazy afternoon We're on a mission to another dimension
Shut down the phone, get rid of valuing attention
I'll take you down to a funny space between 4 and 5
Where you and I do bloom While listening to some more 45's
On Sunday afternoon
And while time is quickly slowing down
For a lazy afternoon While listening to some more 45's
On Sunday afternoon
And while time is quickly slowing down
For a lazy afternoon While listening to some more 45's
On Sunday afternoon
And while time is quickly slowing down
For a lazy afternoon Intention is built into you and me
On Sunday afternoon
We're getting ready for some lazy action
On Sunday afternoon
