

100 (feat. da Brat)

Demetria McKinney

Say they wanna love somebody
Say they wanna find a lady
Talking all that bullsh-t
Riding around in new Mercedes
Say they wanna blow that check
But then they start acting shady, no

I'll be whippin' in that Barbie
Yellow diamonds on my wrist
I'll be all up on your TV
And I got these haters pissed
CEOs wanna see me
I just scratch 'em off my list
I'm a grown ass woman
I do boss ass

Keep it 100
Baby 'cause I wanna love someone
Just be honest
And tell me all that you want
100
Because it's written all over your face
Why you frontin'
Just be honest
100

Baby 'cause I wanna love someone
Just be honest
And tell me all that you want
100
No time for silly little games you play
Just be honest
100
One

See, I need a man to keep it a thousand
He's quick to come here, underwear browsin'
So tell me all your intentions, spoil my intuition
He's tellin' me something's missing
Boy you claim that you're the thrilliest

When you up up in them streets
But you can't be a man and keep it real with me
Tell me what you want, I know just who to be
Say you wanna wife, but really you wanna freak

Keep it 100 with me, its a long line of them and
They was wishin' they was runnin' with me
And they all find something they love about me
Get addicted to me, can't live without me
And I don't doubt for one second, hard to get on my level
I can't settle for nothing less than better
You better be ready to battle the stormy weather
And if everything shatters could you pick up the pieces
And make it all 100 again?
Or would you rather be running with your friends
Instead of celebrating a damn ass woman is right here
Instead of spending all of your time doing anything
Other than making me smile from ear to ear
I ain't impressed easily, let's be clear
I need that Genuine, so I could ride that pony
That pony, that pony, that pony

One
100 with you
