

The Secret

Emery

On the way to gray
I could hardly wait
To see you again
To feel your hands Covering me
'Til the storm is done
Seemed to be the end
Was not the end at all When I hear the rain
Should I be afraid
For my, for my
For my life Why do you look at me that way?
I told you that I was too busy to see you
I would never keep a secret from you From you Is it over?
I am fine
Thank you dearly
For your time I'll be leaving
Don't you cry
I'll be back soon
At least I'll try Can't you see
There is no time to think
Selfishly Yesterday's gone
Tomorrow's here
Can't turn back now
I won't quit I still love you
I swear
I always will I always will
I always will
