

See The Light

Mike Oldfield

I been waiting at this frontier
And it seems like a hundred years,
But I couldn't see past the gate.
I couldn't see past the hate.
Now I'm coming back to my senses.
I can see a light past the fences,
Standing at the borderline.
I've come to the end of the line.
Will-power, give me some to survive.
One more hour and I'm coming alive.
I can see the light.
[chorus]And there's blue sky breaking
Through the edge of the night.
I can see the light.
Ooh, I can feel the light.
Whoa-whoa! whoa-whoa!
The most precious thing I possess
Is knowing the answer's yes,
And soon my liberty
Will be a reality.
I've been given a second chance.
I could open my arms and dance.
Open that barricade.
No longer I'm living afraid.
Will-power, give me some to survive.
One more hour and I'm coming alive.
I can see the light.
[repeat chorus]
Now I climb the steps to freedom.
The open gates, I can see them.
Hands that I once knew
Beckoning me through.
As the sunlight touch my face,
I can feel the warm embrace.
Arms surround me.
My life has found me.
Will-power, give me some to survive.
One more hour and I'm coming alive.
I can see the light.

[repeat chorus]Whoa-whoa!

Ooh, I can see the light.

I can see the light

Coming in bright.

I can feel the light,

Freedom in sight.

Oh, I can see the light

Coming in bright.

I can feel the light.

I can see the light,

It's coming in bright.

I can feel the light,

Freedom in sight.

I can see the light.

Oh, I can feel the light.

I can see the light,

It's coming in bright.
