lyrics

Who took the pickle?
right off of the middle of my plate While I was in the bathroom busy getting filled by my date Huh?
Who stole the last scoop of stuffing?
I'll throw kucks, commence the ass bustin quick fast no discussion out and broad day bloody sixth Ave over luncheon who's got an opinion spare us
you're embarrassing your lineage dum dum you're ensnared up in some petty pussyfootin bullshit suspicion it some sucks!
go out and get all I care thumbs up brahhhhh

well he was acting kind of strange and approached me a weird way answer the one question you know she wasn't that drunk and she practically begged me like answer the question well I wasn't being mean but to speak on my beliefs is the American dream right?

You're such an ignorant

Bush!
you beat around it kid you see the how get up off your knees and be about it stop being childish you should be doubting what your doing see it your grief is tireless but 'grief does not change you, Hazel it reveals you'
patience is a field trip ethereal and soundless you should try it sometime when you're finished pouting and everybody's got an asshole oh, you've heard that before? fast forward to the chorus then I'll fight the bar on my ninth pint of grog but I don't give a fuck what your opinion is... it's wrong, communist!

condom on your father could've prevented
this Romulan apocalypse that we're embodied in I'll take my Bonnie on a Clydesdale off into solitude
To never hear yours fart again Asshole..

(Hook)

fuck you say about a bitch?
