Be Still

Andy Griggs

The last of the guests are leaving
And there's a bottle of red wine still breathing
Out on the patio
What do you say we go out there and kill itAnd finish off the rest of this evening
Under a blanket of stars
Lie down in the yard, not go anywhere
I just wanna lie thereBe still
Be stillThe world can wait until morning
It's time we spent some time ignoring responsibility
I don't even wanna think about tomorrow
Lets just let it goBe still
(Some times you gotta unwind)
(Give yourself some down time)
(Just to keep your sanity)
Be still
(Baby take a deep breath)
(You and me motionless)
(No where else I'd rather be)Some times you gotta unwind
Give yourself some down time
Just to keep your sanity
Baby take a deep breath
You and me motionless
No where else I'd rather beBe still
(Some times you gotta unwind)
(Give yourself some down time)
(Just to keep your sanity)
Be still
(Baby take a deep breath)
(You and me motionless)
(No where else I'd rather be)Just be still
(Some times you gotta unwind)
(Give yourself some down time)
(Just to keep your sanity)
Be still
(Baby take a deep breath)
(You and me motionless)
(No where else I'd rather be)Be still
Be still
(Some times you gotta unwind)

(Give yourself some down time)
(Just to keep your sanity)
Ohh
(Baby take a deep breath)
(You and me motionless)
(No where else I'd rather be)Some times you gotta unwind
Give yourself some down time
Just to keep your sanity
