

Go Crybaby

Gin Blossoms

When you're taking all you find
I can't tell what isn't mine
Now I can't reduce the fever
And no matter how I try There's a pain that isn't real
From the moment you can feel
You begin to lose your power
It was such a rotten deal From the pain you know you're not asleep now
You're lost in space, it's all that matters anyhow Go baby, cry
In falling voices, pain for all that time
Come on out
It's your mistake and it takes forever Go baby cry
In falling voices, pay for all our crime
Come on now, if you wanna cry
Go baby, cry I surround you with these walls
Hollow ways and narrow halls
I supposed you think it's funny
Getting wasted on us all There's a wound you'll never reach
One you bandage and you leach
There's a chill tonight around us
Cutting off from our release For everyday we spend another week now
It's my mistake, but I could never see how Go baby, cry
In falling voices, pain for all that time
Come on out
It's your mistake and it takes forever Go baby cry
In falling voices, pay for all our crime
Come on now, if you wanna cry
Go baby, cry Go baby, cry
In falling voices, pain for all that time
Come on out
It's your mistake and it takes forever Go baby, cry
In falling voices, pay for all our crime
Come on now, if you wanna cry
Go baby, cry Go cry baby, go cry baby, go cry baby, go
Go baby, cry
Go cry baby, go cry baby, go cry baby, go
Go baby, cry Go cry baby, go cry baby, go cry baby, go
Go baby, cry
If you wanna cry
(Go cry baby, go) Go baby, cry

If you wanna cry
(Go cry baby, go)
Go baby, cry
If you wanna cry
