

Heaven

Sugar Ray

Surrounded by broken hearts
Promises are torn apart
Everybody lookin' for someone in the dark
Got lost on my own tongue tied on the phone
Everywhere I look there's a face in a place called home
Feelin' all alone in the middle of the night
Feelin' all alone when nothin' works out right
Lyn' all alone in the middle of the night
Lyn' in a dream now everything's alright
Don't you know I'm in heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found heaven, heaven
Surrender to a broken heart
Beat down from the start
If you think it's over baby let me know
But it's easier than it seems
Find yourself in a dream
Now I found you
If you wanna go there baby
Just say so found you, found you
Feelin' all alone in the middle of the night
Feelin' all alone when nothin' works out right
Lyn' all alone in the middle of the night
Lyn' in a dream now everything's alright
Don't you know I'm in heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found heaven, heaven
Heaven, now I'm fallin', heaven, now I'm fallin'
Heaven, feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Now I found you
Feet never touch the ground now I found heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Now I'm in heaven
Heaven feet never touch the ground now I found you heaven
Feet never touch you, heaven know you
Feet never touch the ground, ground, ground
