Words Became Untruth

Hatebreed

The man drifting seeks poison and promise A threat to all, mostly to himself Hearing voices from the great beyond Now only he can dig himself outEyes red, wrists cut Reaching out but not from heaven Soul black, head fucked Hells existence isnt numbYou cant keep him from his bottom Where the dwelling ends or begins Once capable and caring Now in perils seductive grip His mournful cries are pitful Sung to dying skies with no stars Now his letters kept inside a flame Those who read only know the burningEyes red, wrists cut Reaching out but not from heaven Soul black, heart fucked Hells existence isnt numb Mouth sewn, hands bound But do you cease the torment Skin cold, failed unknown Scream until the blood fill your lungYeah, now youre a threat

But only to yourself
Yeah, now youre a threat
To your own tomorrowAll your words became, untruth
