

Lonely So Long

New York Dolls

Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long I feel like a fragment
Out here in the street
Like I've been sleeping
On the concrete
I miss your soft skin
And your kisses so sweet
Laying in a feather bed,
Safe and warm
I can't get it out of my head,
I'm out here instead Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long The back of a taxi
Thought I saw you go by
I called out your name, girl,
And started to smile
This is too deep even for tears,
Don't wanna cry out here
I loved you for seven years,
I wanna come on home Tried to bum a cigarette
Nobody smokes no more
Down on Bleecker and Lafayette
Girl I'm so sick Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(Don't you leave me lonely)
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(You know girl?)
It ain't even funny out on the street)
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(It's like everything living,
Everything living out here is deceased)
So don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(Don't you leave me lonely)
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(Lonely, lonely, baby)
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
(Don't you leave me lonely)
Don't leave me lonely, lonely so long
