

Too Late To Die Young

Beach Slang

Too young to die, too late to die young.

I try to fight, but get high and give up.

I ain't ever felt loved.

The punks are wired and these records feel tough.

Its loud and wild, but I swear it feels soft.

Yeah, it's always enough. It's always been enough.

There's honesty in these neon lights.

We're animals, drunk and alive

I swear, right now I'm alright.

The lowest lives and the desperate ones,
you are the light of the damaged and fucked.

Baby, turn your heart up.

There's honesty in these neon lights.

We're animals, drunk and alive

I swear, right now I'm alright.
