Young Man, Old Soul

Spiritual Beggars

Youve been down this road before
Heard this story a thousand times or more
With a cynical bitter stare
You watch your life go by bye, byeYoung man with an old soul
Open your mind, dont close that doorNo matter how high you climb
Its never high enough
Cant enjoy the moment, no
Never satisfied with what you gotYoung man with an old soul
Open your mind, dont close that doorYoung man with an old soul
Open your mind, dont close that doorDont close that door
Dont close that door
Dont you close that door
