Lament

Blake Babies

You told me all about you without ever saying a word
Every time you opened your mouth, it was my voice that I heard
At least that's what I thought or maybe I'm just lonely
Believing every minute of every day that you're the very onlyYou led me on 'cause all your songs
Were stuck onto my heart
Why don't you finish what you start?People wishing I'd come back
I don't wanna change like that
People crying for old days
I don't wanna change that wayBefore you had to sing your songs, there was nothing else you could do
Well, I know all about it 'cause I do it too
I waited, and waited, and waited, and waited for you to return again
And when you finally resurfaced, it was like I'd lost my best friendYou led me on 'cause all your songs
Were really dear to me, ohh
I wish your words were still clear to mePeople wishing I'd come back
I don't wanna change like that
People crying for old days
I don't wanna change that way, noIt's a fact and I can't fight it, it will always be unrequited
If I had a bullet, I would bite it
If you didn't mean it, why do you write it? It will always be unrequited
If I had a bullet, I would bite itYou can't come back that many times
There's no such thing as a dull roar
I promise I'll never make you wish it was like it was before
I'll stop it before it gets like that, it doesn't matter how
You'll only have good memories, the only time is nowPeople wishing I'd come back
I don't wanna change like that
People crying for old days
I don't wanna change that wayPeople wishing I'd come back
I don't wanna do that
People crying for old days
I don't wanna change that way
