I Keep Forgetting

Lee Ann Womack

If I see you on the street and start to cry
If it looks like I'm so lonesome I might die
If you can hear my heart just breaking right in two Remind me once again who left who
I keep forgetting that I don't need you now
It slips my mind that I'm the one who said we were through
I just can't seem to remember, it was me who walked out the door
I keep forgetting I don't love you anymore
If your phone should ring in the middle of the night
If missin' you is a feelin' I can no longer fight
If I beg you please just give me one more try
Remind me I'm the one who said goodbye
I keep forgetting that I don't need you now
It slips my mind that I'm the one who said we were through
I just can't seem to remember, it was me who walked out the door
I keep forgetting I don't love you anymore
I keep forgetting I don't love you anymore
I keep forgetting

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/