

Boom Boom

Macy Gray

Passed me by driving with the top down
Got upset so I dropped some plastic cash
You said I didn't a dress or diamonds
Why pay less when it's more fun to see you crash ?
Boom Boom, you're acting all surprised
Boom Boom, don't you ever wonder why
I take it, I break it, I make it, I fake it
But when I walk into the room your heart still goes Boom Boom
See life is better on the outside
So lay me down on a bed and ??
I've been searching with the truth, no consequence
'Cause you do not got the proof to my defense
Boom Boom, the jury must be hung
Boom Boom, I should have held my tongue
I take it, I break it, I make it, I fake it
But when I walk into the room your heart still goes Boom Boom
Boom Boom, so pull away your ride
'Cause you know I'm worth the ride
