

Just Like You

Rollins Band

I am the man from a human choke hold
I am the product of your restraint
 Never once did I say no
I watched the years pass by me
 My body is scarred by age
 Never once did I complain
 Now you get to taste my rage
Now I watch myself explode From the wreckage of humiliation
 I got my self respect
 What the hell did you expect
 I pulled myself together
 When I see myself I see you
 Rage
 Everything that you did I do
When I see myself I see you You should see the pain I go through
 My flesh isn't my flesh
 I'm just like you
 My blood isn't my blood
