

Dumb

Faith Evans

Ah ahh ah dumb
Dumb, dumb yeah dumb Now baby I was wrapped up in your love
So crazy for you couldn't get enough
My girl was down and damn was no defense
I played the fool time and time again Now I feel the deep and much regret
And I can't get over, can't get over, I can't get over it
Filled with so much pain I won't forget
So I'm over this, so I'm over this That's why I'm sayin' that it's over for you
My my, I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you
That's why I'm sayin that it's over for you
I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you I won't be a dummy for you, yeah
One more time,
Now baby I was wrapped up in your love
So stupid for you couldn't get enough
So willing that I would do anything
Just like I was a puppet on a string yeah Now I feel a deep and much regret
And I can't get over, can't get over, I can't get over it
Filled with so much pain I won't forget
So I'm over this, so I'm over this That's why I'm sayin that it's over for you
My my, I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you
That's why I'm sayin that it's over for you
I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you Oh, you thought I wasn't gonna do it
Well you better get into it honey
'Cause you'll be doin' shows and stunts and tricks
So you can let the door knob hit you with a good Lord's switcher baby
Huh, you better build the bridge and get over it
'Cause I'm her latest daughter, I ain't nobody's fool That's why I'm sayin that it's over for you
My my, I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you
That's why I'm sayin that it's over for you

I tried my best to trust and love you
So long, I'm saying sayonara to ya
So long, 'cause I won't be a dummy for you? 'cause you know my shit is hot
? 'cause you know my shit is hot
? 'cause you know my shit is hot
