

In Through the Doggie Door

Sugar Ray

Well I just got back an hour ago
I don't know where I've been
Now I'm crawlin' across the kitchen door
I don't know what I've seen Well I feel so complicated, and our love is kinda jaded
Well I'm comin' through the doggie door again Well there ain't no sense in comin' home
She knows where I've been
And it's another night out in the cold
One more time again It's a hard time understandin', you know you're so demanding
And I'm comin' through the doggie door again I've got nothin' for ya
I've got nothin' for ya, I've got nothin' for ya baby
I've got nothin' for ya
I've got nothin' for ya My life is complicated, our love is kinda jaded
And I'm comin' through the doggie door
I'm runnin' through the doggie door
I'm fallin' through the doggie door again
