Disney Town

Mono

Walls are white
Burning boredom
And her shoes are tight
They're never rightOpen shop, nothing left
Because they tied the knot
They lied a lotHe tells her, she feeds him
She hates him more
His tea cup, she spits in
He loves her moreOnce again
She fries his breakfast
As she counts to ten
Remembers whenAlone at night
The nylon head
Upon his trophy wife
Her talk show lifeShe throws up
He comes down
They watch TV
They live in Disney Town
She's his BarbieHe tells her, she feeds him
She hates him more
His tea cup, she spits in
He loves her moreShe throws up
He comes down
They watch TV
They live in Disney Town
She's his Barbie
