

You Come Along

Seelenluft

You come along,
Your perfume is strong,
It smells so wrong,
I bite my tongue

Your openness is fake,
'Cause you're not awake,
You shake your ass,
But I want to pass

I can't leave but I don't like to stay,
'Cause there is you standing right in my way,
Gimme your hand, I know a place to go,
Somewhere you've never been before,

You try to find,
A way out f'your mind,
But your search is blind,
That makes your teeth grind

This is a song,
'Bout being free,
You can't go wrong,
Just follow me

I can't leave but I don't like to stay,
'Cause there is you standing right in my way,
Gimme your hand, I know a place to go,
Somewhere you've never been before
