Rushing In

Sonicflood

I feel like I've gone astray just like a runaway
From the grip of your love, it's not that I wanted to Its not like I tried to do it that way, Ive found
Theres no distance too far that could change who You are
That could turn You awayYour love comes rushing in pouring over me
I know when I come running, Youre there for me
Theres no way that I could ever lose my way
I know, Im captive in Your arms
In the grip of Your graceWhen doubts and fears are starting to move in That's when Your love, Your love comes rushing inEvery day Your mercys new and theres nothing I can do
To earn Your love I believe in what You say
Trust in You and know Your grace is more than enough
Theres no mountain so high, no river so wide
That could keep me from YouYour love comes rushing in pouring over me
I know when I come running, Youre there for me
Theres no way that I could ever lose my way
I know, Im captive in Your arms
In the grip of Your graceWhen doubts and fears are starting to move in That's when Your love, Your love comes rushing inYour love comes rushing in pouring over me
I know when I come running, Youre there for me
Theres no way that I could ever lose my way
I know, Im captive in Your arms
In the grip of Your graceWhen doubts and fears are starting to move in That's when Your love, Your love comes rushing in Your love comes rushing in
