

Something's Gotta Give

LeAnn Rimes

Jenny's got a job, a cat named Jake
Thirty-one candles on her birthday cake
Next year I thought by now she'd have a man
Two car-seats in a minivan
But it still ain't here, hey, oh yeah She's been looking for Mr. Right so long
But all she's found is Mr. Wrong
And that's the pits She's drawn a line that she won't cross
Her and time are facing off
She says, something's gotta give Something's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
And something's gotta give me dreams at night
Something's gotta make me feel alright I don't know where it is
Yeah, but something's gotta give
Something's gotta give Friday night she had a date
Cell phone junky, a half hour late
Yeah, that's the biz, baby She's ridin' out this twist of fate
She's had all that she can take
She says, something's gotta give Hey, something's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
Yeah, something's gotta give me dreams at night
Something's gotta make me feel alright I don't know where it is Yeah, but something's gotta give I swear, there's got to be a meant to be
For me out there somewhere, someday
I'm gonna find someone, somehow, someday Jenny's got a job, a cat named Jake
Thirty-one candles on her birthday cake
Next year She thought by now she'd have a man
Two car-seats and a minivan
She says something's got
Something's got, something's gotta Something's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
Yeah, something's gotta give me dreams at night
Something's gotta make me feel alright I don't know where it is
Yeah, but something's gotta
I don't know where it is
Yeah, but something's gotta
I don't know where it is
Yeah, but something's gotta give

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>