

My Apocalypse

Arch Enemy

Sudden implosion of silenced emotions
Buried beneath a scarred heart for too long
Delusions of hope fading away
Dying like leaves on frozen soilMy apocalypse is near
I can feel the end, coming hereNeglecting existence repulse and repent
An endless journey into the morbid
Whispering voices distorting all senses
Buried beneath a scarred heart for too longMy apocalypse is near
I can feel the end coming hereMy apocalypse is near
I can feel the end coming hereThe bitter taste of a dying dream
Shine the light on our shadows and illusions
