

Listen

(Hed) P.E.

Listen, I realized my life is flying by
And I'm not afraid to die
I made a choice, I chose to be the voice
Of the voiceless, you heard that
I sold my soul to punk rock
And so I chose to walk alone, baby Yeah, I gotta stay high man
You know how I get down
Never say die, never lay down nigga You realized your life is flying by
And you're not ready to die
(Tell, what did I find?)
You take a hit, you rose And from the hip explode
The hollow tip homey
(What did I find?)
This time the rhymes will cut
Through the fake cable news
(What did I find?) Yeah, we gotta stay high man
You know how we get down
Never say die, never lay down nigga Listen times are changing
Everybody knows the games you're playing
One fall down and the rest will follow
Prepare today for the world tomorrow
(Tell, what did I find?) I wake up and bake
I shake up the world
That's what I'm here for
Lights out before the nights out I'm a see what you about, baby
There comes a time
When every man decides
To live or die for freedom Yeah, you gotta stay high man
You know how I get down
Never say die, never lay down nigga The black car, the white collar covers
All the bullet holes in the government yard
Try to hold on, pray for the dawn
But this time the nights are so fucking long I get confused, I don't know how to lose
So I keep my DJ on the 1's and 2's
I pay the court, I bleed the boss
I suffered the loss of a chosen few Listen times are changing
Everybody knows the games you're playing
One fall down and the rest will follow
Prepare today for the world tomorrow Listen times are changing

Everybody knows the games you're playing
One fall down and the rest will follow
Prepare today for the world tomorrow
(What did I find?)I know you wanna take an eye for an eye
But pretty soon the whole world will be blind
Hey, hey, come on
