Kiss So Hard

Last Winter

You kiss so hard that I stop breathingSo I got your letter early Monday morning and I could not believe my eyesIt said: "things aren't working here, I'm coming home my dear.
Please tell me you havent forgotten me."You kiss so hard that I stop breathing and I could stay right here Oh won't you let me?You kiss so hard that I stop breathing and I could die right here but you wouldn't let meNow I'm at the station waiting 7: 30 like your letter clearly stated You said that you'd meet me here but you weren't there my dear
I can't believe you broke my heart again
