

Kiss So Hard

Last Winter

You kiss so hard that I stop breathing
So I got your letter early Monday morning and I could not believe my eyes It said: "things aren't working here, I'm coming home my dear.
Please tell me you haven't forgotten me."
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing
and I could stay right here Oh won't you let me?
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing and I could die right here but you wouldn't let me Now I'm at the station waiting 7:30 like your letter clearly stated You said that you'd meet me here but you weren't there my dear
I can't believe you broke my heart again
