

Congratulations

Juliana Hatfield

I have a sweet creamy warm little jelly roll
I have a mind to just let my whole body go
Thought I was hungry but now I dont really know
If you dont want it, you simply just say no I aint an animal lovable huggable
You look so human but hey one can never tell
I got no secrets and I think that you should know life aint a party
Its not like a video "I am", he said to me, "Equally wary"
I dont know what I like only know what I dont
I dont like what I know only love what I dont
I know the fire but none of the afterglow
Killing the irony thats ruining rock and roll "I am", he said to me "Equally wary"
Thinking of you as I lick the crumbs off the floor
Congratulations are due as you shut the door
Never began and so nor will it ever end Only desire, desire not anything more
I am he, he is me, I am he, he is me
Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo
