

Age 36

Gay Black Republican

Age 36:

In the cemetery
where the dead lay buried
Where the shadows of the witness
Said he committed harry carry

Watch them all crawl
Up the cemetery walls
Climbed into heaven
Just to fall back to hell

I see you yearning
I watch you burning
The Devil calls your name almost every night
Your last hit
That spike in your vein
Shooting up
wonâ€™t save your life!

I want to die
I want to fade away

Ashes to ashes
We all fall down
Ashes to ashes
You hit the ground running

The castle built on sand
By the way side of the deep
Tsunami rolls in
And - pulls it all under!

I see you learning
I watch you turning
Johns on the corner of 10th every night

Your last hit
That last bump
Blowing that pipe

Won't save your life!

I want to die
I want to fade away

(break down)
I... I... I... want to fade away!

I want to die
I want to fade away
