

Westbound Sign

Green Day

Boxed up all of her favorite things
Sold the rest at a rainy yard sale
Big plans and leaving friends and a westbound sign
Weighed out her choices on a scale
Prevailing nothing made sense
Just transportation and a blank decisionShe's takin' off
Takin' off
Takin' off
Takin' offNo time and no coppin' out
She burning daylight petrol
Blacked out the rear view mirror heading westward on Strung out on confusion road
And ten minute nervous breakdowns
Xanax a beer for thought and she's determinedShe's takin' off
Takin' off
Takin' off
Takin' offOh, is it salvation
Or an escape from discontent?
Will she find her name
In the California cement?
Punched out of the grind
That punched her one too many times
Is tragedy two thousand miles away?She's takin' offAlright
