

World of Love

k.d. lang

Far from above
A soul watched in silence
She dreamed of love
And innocenceThe soul thought, "How odd
And rare this beauty
This creature of God
That lies before me"The touch of the sun
Was caressing her skin
The realm of the reason
Came from within
And so the world love beginsThe warm scent of musk
Came rising slowly
Lavish and lush
Divine and holyThe touch of the sun
Was caressing her skin
The realm of the reason
Came from within
And so the world love beginsThis was a dance
Smiling with desire
This was romance's
Burning fireThe touch of the sun
Was caressing her skin
The realm of the reason
Came from within
And so the world love begins
And so the world love begins
