The Karma Division

Superheist

You're so cold, it freaks me out
So many times we've gone with out
Untold, was the truth
Now it's coming back to get youLike men I'll fight
For everything that I believe
We cannot hide
This karma's on deliveryYou're bold, you scream out loud
And you forget what life's about
I hope you realize
Now I'm coming back to get youLike men I'll fight
For everything that I believe
We cannot hide
This karma's on deliveryYour karma's on delivery
Your karma's on deliveryNow they can't and they would
But you can and you will
They can't, they won't
But you can and you willThey can't, they won't
You can, you will
They can't, they won't
You can, you willI see you falling
I see you fallLike men I'll fight
For everything that I believe
You cannot hide
Your karma's on deliveryYour karma's on delivery
Your karma's on delivery
Your karma's on delivery
Your karma's on deliveryI see you falling
I see you fall
