

Borderline with My Atoms (Nai Palm) [Commentary]

Hiatus Kaiyote

Melt into the other world
Melt, melt
He saw my eyes turn gold and reptile
I dream tonight bare and baptized
Bear and baptized
Coyote bones flex the muscle of animal spirit old
A bond so simple
Borderline with my, my atoms
Borderline, in time, it alkalines
After the coal has settled deep beneath ash resting
Quiet as silk the remedy tampers the willing
A ripe submergence of the highest order, no borders
After the coal has settled deep beneath ash resting
Quiet as silk the remedy tampers the willing
A ripe submergence of the highest order, no borders
Borderline with my, my atoms
