Gentleman

I was seeking now i find ,yeeea, Mankind!It's not about class, colour or races, let's get around and see different places yeah,
put a smile on those distant faces, wipe away your sorrow with no traces.It's not about class, colour or races,
let's get around and see different places yeah,
put a smile on those distant faces, wipe away your sorrow with no traces.
Joy, boy, let "your soul a vibes" let your voices be heard a make a joyful noise, joy, boy, full time NOW realize,

You nuh see say we a step ina di footsteps of Jah Jah, but step by step nuh so we climb up the ladder, with truth and rights we help another.It's not about class, colour or races, silence and devotion must we learn, for the oneness connection that we earn, the players of the faithful concern, that the tide it might be turn.It's not about class, colour or races, wipe away your sorrow with no traces.It's not about class, colour or races,

let's get around and see different places yeah,
put a smile on those distant faces, wipe away your sorrow with no traces.I nuh really matter if your cons are pros , and i nuh really matter if your friends are foes, to be yourself ina "the ideal" so life goes, righteousness man havi come first.It's not about class, colour or races, let's get around and see different places yeah,
put a smile on THOSE distant faces, wipe away your sorrow with no traces. Joy, boy, let "your soul a vibes"

let your voices be heard a make a joyful noise,
joy, boy, full time NOW realize,
the truth havi be told to recognize,
You nuh see say we a step ina di footsteps of Jah Jah,
