

Save the Trees

Swingfly

You ever think you're losing your mind of yours?
You feel good about it and you don't wanna
Be saved, just wanna be yourself?
Well here's a song for you! It's slipping in your hair, tossing
And you're turning in your bed
Bossing up your brand, driving
You insane, but it's alright!
You still ain't got a clue, no socks, no shoes
Walked out the door screaming
No more! But it's alright! It's time for a confession, c'mon and do a session
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees
It was never funny, and this I tell you honey
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees Oh, I'm pulling out my hair right now, argh let's go! Clapping your hands, stomping your feet, you're doing your Dance, but you don't even hear a beat, that's alright! I can dance boy, I can dance boy! You dress like a champ, because
You're ready to go, move fast
Move slow, missing the flow, it's alright! It's time for a confession, c'mon and do a session
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees
It was never funny, and this I tell you honey
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees Oh ah iih ah oh ah iih ah oh ah iih
Ah oh ah tschitschi tschitschi ah!
Oh ah mmh oh ah mmh oh ah mmh oh ah aaoh It's time for a confession, c'mon and do a session
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees
It was never funny, and this I tell you honey
Oh oh oh oh please, save the trees, help!
