First Thing Wrong

Squeeze

There's evil in goodness and goodness in bad
Remember the first kiss, the first kiss you had Choked on her tongue and bit on her lip
She gave her number but that was itDid the first thing wrong, did the first thing wrong
Oh, eyes to the ceilin' and pants on the floor
I did the first thing wrongDrove to the city to see the bright lights
The boys on the corner looked ready to fight
I stuck my neck out and I looked at his face
I left her standing, I was caught in a chaseDid the first thing wrong, did the first thing wrong
Oh, eyes to the ceilin' and pants on the floor
I did the first thing wrongBut it's four in the morning and I knock on the door
She says, "How you doin'?", and I say, "I'm not sure"
I kick the bottles all downstairs
Guys are freakin' out, so what? I don't careDid the first thing wrong, did the first thing wrong
Oh, eyes to the ceilin' and pants on the floor
I did the first thing wrongDid the first thing wrong
Did the first thing wrong
