

Deify

Disturbed

All my devotion betrayed
I am no longer afraid
I was too blinded to see
How much you've stolen from me You wanna know why I feel so horrified?
I let my innocence die
You wanna know why I, I can't be pacified?
You made me bury something, I won't be sleeping tonight I only wanted the blessing made
Now I've been labeled a renegade
It seems so clear now what I must do
You're no immortal, I won't let them Deify you
They view you as the new messiah
Deify you
Renew belief in some demented man You wanna know why it seems the passion has died?
We've all been living this lie
You wanna know why my, my will's been fortified?
You've made me hunger again, good luck sleeping tonight I only wanted the blessing made
Now I've been labeled a renegade
It seems so clear now what I must do
You're no immortal, I won't let them Deify you
They view you as the new messiah
Deify you
Renew belief in some demented man All my devotion betrayed
I am no longer afraid All my devotion betrayed
I am no longer afraid
I was too blinded to see
How much you've stolen from me
(I was too blinded to see) All my devotion betrayed
I am no longer afraid
I was too blinded to see
How much you've stolen from me Deify you
They view you as the new messiah
Deify you
Renew belief in some demented man Deify you
(All my devotion betrayed)
They view you as the new messiah
(I am no longer afraid) Deify you
(I was too blinded to see)
Renew belief in some demented man
(How much you've stolen from me)
